

13. That's All I'm Askin' for (reprise)

Words and music by Trey Parker

Miller: You know? It's funny. When we started out on this trip, all I wanted was to be rich. But now, just some food, some warmth... that's all I'm asking for.

All: B \flat
Inappropriately jaunty p (barely alive)

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. The first system (measures 1-4) features a vocal line with lyrics 'That's all we're ask - in' for. That's all we're ask - in' and a piano accompaniment with dynamics mf and more legato. The second system (measures 5-8) has lyrics 'for. For - get a - bout the pie. We just don't want to die. We've' and includes chord markings Cm7, F, E \flat , E \emptyset , and F. The third system (measures 9-12) has lyrics 'had some rot - ten luck. We can't take it a - ny - more. We don't care if' and includes chord markings B \flat , Cm, and Dm. The score is in 6/8 time and B-flat major.

5 for. For - get a - bout the pie. We just don't want to die. We've

10 had some rot - ten luck. We can't take it a - ny - more. We don't care if

15 E^b E- F

8 we're fo - re - ver poor. That's all we're mp

19 F13 B^b

8 ask - - - - in' for.